SUPPLEMENT.

Mound City.

Al Brumbough spent a few days this week in Oregon.

Louis Morrow is now quite low at his home with pneumonia.

Jack Brink, of Maryville, was in the city one day last week.

Mrs. Kittie Wells has three children who are all sick with measles.

Dr. Chittenden is entertaining his son from Kingman, Kas., this week.

Heavy showers were reported all over Northern Holt last Sunday.

John Kennish was transacting business in Maryville one day last week.

Mrs. W. R. Smith, who had a bad attack of measles, is improving.

J. V. Crannell has sold his residence property to Dr. R. H. Chittenden.

Miss Florence Durham and Mrs. John Cook were visiting friends in St. Joe Saturday.

Byron Noble, of the Turner-Frazer Mercantile company, of St. Joe, spent Sunday in the city.

Dr. W. S. Safford, of Tarkio, was visiting his son-in-law, Dr. S. S. Williams, several days last week.

R. M. Martin left last week for his home in Newton, Ia. He drove the team recently traded for by him.

Elder Taylor, of this city, is conducting a meeting in the interest of the Baptist church at Rock Port.

Hon. John Kennish, of this city, had the honor of being chosen vice-president of the Republican League convention at Springfield.

S. V. Richardson has sold his fruit farm, adjoining town on the north, to J. G. Carr, of Kansas. Mr. Carr is the father of the Times man.

Fred Vandersaot will occupy the rooms over the Fifth street butcher shop. Mr. V. will be an employee of the shop owned by Levi Dodge.

Col. J. C. Root, of Omaha, founder of the Woodmen of the World, delivered a lecture on Woodcraft at the opera house last Wednesday evening.

Letters from C. C. Fuller report him as improving steadily under his doctor at Hot Springs, and reports that he will soon be able to return home.

A lodge of the K. of P. was organized and instituted at Tarkio Wednesday evening of this week. The lodge at this place did a prominent part in the work.

John Kyle, son of our townsman, J. S. Kyle, arrived last week with his family from Montana and after a short stay will take up his home in Southern Missouri.

Henry Ring, who moved to Kansas last spring, is back on a visit, and in all probability will turn his course this way soon for good as many others have done.

C. E. Morrow, of Fairfax, spent a few days in the city this week. It will be remembered that Mr. Morrow moved his stock of clothing from this city to Westboro last summer, but he has sold it out and now owns an interest in a hardware stock in Fairfax.

Joe Hobbittzell, of Maitland, came down one day last week and bought all the property belonging to I. D. Newton, including the building occupied by the Comet and also the one occupied by the Fifth street butcher shop. From the way Mr. H. has invested in property in and about Mound City, lead us to believe that he has an eye on our city and has acknowledged our to be the coming city of Northwest Missouri.

The Bigelow road was in such a condition this week that the livermen were compelled to take off all night hacks. Why can't our county court do something with this road?

Robert L. Duncan, representing the Brans & Nina's Character Mimic company, was in our city this week and booked the company for the 12th. This company is undoubtedly one of the finest of this kind on the road and carries one of the finest musicians in the land. If you want to see something worth your money, attend.

A large number of the "stags" of the town gathered at the residence of R. W. Bridges on Wednesday evening of last week, the occasion being the celebration of the 29th anniversary of Mr. B.'s birthday. It is needless to say they had fun "to a finish," for all know how such "stags" as J. M. Austin, A. S. Smith, Ed Gillis, John Jordan, and about a dozen more such could enjoy themselves. Nothing but cold water(?) was on tap.

A serious accident occurred last Wednesday, in which Willie, the little son of A. J. Daniels came very near losing both eyes. It seems that Willie and Bertha McKee, the little daughter of C. A. McKee, had gained possession of four shot-gun shells and were trying to fire them. Willie lighted a match and touched it to them, and while the two were stooping over them the four shells exploded simultaneously, burning each of them horribly about the face and head. The skin all came off Willie Daniels' face, and it was feared he would lose both eyes, but we are glad to learn the accident will not prove so serious. Fortunately, the shells were only loaded with powder. PETROS.

Bluff City.

A few ducks are flying northward, and hunters are plenty.

Squire Carter, of Forbes, was visiting Peter Sipes, of this vicinity, Saturday.

Miss Silva Sipes, of this city, spent a few days visiting in Forbes last week.

Beachen Nichols moved in the Jacob Markt house, near the school house, last week.

Albert Markt, of Mill Creek, who spent last week in Bluff City, returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Schlotzner, of your city, were visiting relatives and spending a few days in our midst last week.

Miss Rena Giffard, teacher of the Baker school, whose school closed last Friday returned to her home in Elwood, Kas., Saturday.

George Seeman, of the firm of Moore & Seeman, of Oregon, was driving through our burg last Thursday, when he met a crowd of men, who stopped him and went through his pockets, taking all the valuables he had, consisting of one gill of peanuts and some pieces of pottery, were that he had found near Forbes, where the Mound Builders left them centuries ago and where they had enjoyed a good meal of turtle soup. Mr. Seeman does not particularly care for the peanuts, but would like to have the pottery ware returned as he values it very highly. SIMMONS.

New Point.

Geo. Donovan, of our drug firm, took in the sights at St. Joseph one day last week.

B. O. Cowan returned from a trip in Kansas Saturday, where he had been gone all last week.

Mrs. Emma Morris and children, of Oregon, are spending a few days with papa and ma this week.

Watson Bloomer has leased one of his father's farms and will move on the same as soon as he can erect a dwelling thereon.

The youngest child of St. John's family has been quite ill of la grippe and lung trouble, but we are glad to report it much better.

James Hamlin has begun the erection of a new millinery shop for Mrs. J. P. Ruhl in the northeast part of town. Still our little village improves.

J. A. Oren and daughter, Ida, took in a musical concert at St. Joseph last week, given by the St. Joseph conservatory of music, which Miss Rosa attended last winter.

Mr. Len Huntsman, who has been sick several weeks, is reported much better, and we hope as the warm sunny days come, we will see Len again upon our streets.

We understand that Watson Bloomer has retired from the general merchandise store of Painter & Bloomer. But we are informed that the firm name will not be changed in name, as A. T. Bloomer assumes Watson's interest, still making it a "gilt edge firm." SANDOW.

Kelso.

Charles Watson was in Oregon Saturday and Sunday.

The Holy Sanctified people have been holding council at the tabernacle, near Bigelow.

Rev. Craig, of Forest City, filled Rev. Reznor's place at Pawpaw Saturday and Sunday.

Jacob Harper moved this week onto the farm that he lately purchased from William Wright.

O. P. Light, who has just closed a very successful term of school in the Marietta district, has moved back to his farm in this neighborhood.

Thomas Yount will leave in a few days for Ozark county, this state. We are sorry to lose such citizens as Mr. Yount, and hope he will soon become dissatisfied with his new home and return to our midst.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perkins was on last Wednesday evening the scene of a happy gathering of friends and relatives, to witness the marriage of their daughter Bertie to Mr. Ben Beauchamp. The bride is a favorite among her hosts of friends here, and the groom is a prosperous young farmer, well and favorably known throughout the county. The ceremony, short and impressive, was performed by Rev. Bain, of Craig. After many hearty congratulations were extended, the guests repaired to the dining room, where a supper, that we have not time and space to describe, was served on tastefully decorated tables.

Foster Forecasts.

My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm wave to cross the continent from March 7 to 11 and the next will reach the Pacific coast about the 11th, cross the western mountains by close of the 12th, the great central valleys from 13th to 15th and the eastern states about the 16th.

This will be a dangerous storm, and will probably develop tornadoes. The aurora will make an unusual display and telegraph lines will have difficulty with an electric storm.

The warm wave preceding the storm will be unusually warm and following it a drop in temperature from 20 to 40 degrees may be expected.

The warm wave will cross the western mountains about the 11th, the great central valleys about the 13th and the eastern states about 14. The cool wave will cross the western mountains about the 14th, the great central valleys about the 16th and the eastern states about 18th.

The heavy rains of this storm will not be extensive but concentrated. Rains will be more general the first and last ten days of the month than during the intermediate ten days.—ST. JOSEPH HERALD.
